

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
DISTRICT OF NEVADA

JIMMY DAVIS
petitioner,

CASE NO. CV-N-99-137-ECR (PHA)

v.

JOHN IGNACIO WARDEN, ET AL.
Respondents.

OPPOSITION TO
RESPONDENTS
MOTION FOR ENLARGEMENT OF TIME

James now petitioner in proper person respectfully submits an opposes and objects to the respondents motion for enlargement of time filed on or about 5-26-99 and recieved by petitioner on 6-1-99 "See attached copy of receiving date page 3".

Respondents request the court to grant an extention of time to answer petitioners WRIT OF HABFAS CORPUS RECEIVED BY THE US DISTRICT COURT DISTRICT OF NEVADA 3-17-99. This extention seeks to go up through and including 7-12-99. "IN SUM 45 days".

The honorable court ordered a response for and due 20 days after statement of no additional claims had been filed which fell on 5-27-99. But respondents did not file on the 7,8,or 9 day but filed on the last day to respond. this can not be construed as a good faith effort when it is a well known common practice of and to delay, To file a motion for extention of time on the last day in virtually every case.

Each claim presented has been addressed by the states highest court. These orders were attached to the writ of habeas corpus so the respondents contentions of having to check for exhaustion is without merit.

Though the tactics used to thwart justice be minuet,
are they not and still unjust.
